Haiti: a call for help, UMCOR responds

The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) is on the ground and hard at work in Haiti and members of Good Shepherd are invited to show their support.

“We are working with our partners on the ground to provide immediate relief to the people in Haiti,” says Melissa Crutchfield, UMCOR’s international disaster response executive. “UMCOR is coordinating with the Methodist Church of Haiti to send a team to assist with relief efforts.”

Sadly, UMCOR is working despite suffering the tragic loss of two of its executive leaders, Rev. Samuel W. Dixon and Rev. Clinton Rabb, who both died from injuries sustained during the earthquake.

In the short term, UMCOR is responding to basic needs for food and shelter. In the weeks, months and years ahead, UMCOR will stay to provide for those who are homeless, injured, and bereft.

UMCOR is working with partners, Action by Churches Together, Church World Service, Global Medic and the Methodist Church to respond effectively to the people of Haiti after this devastating earthquake shook the nation’s capital, Port-au-Prince on Jan. 12. Haiti is often referred to as “the poorest of the poor.” 100 percent of your donation will go to help the people of Haiti.

How to Give

Year after year UMCOR’s greatest need is for funds that aid international emergency relief efforts. Please give to Haiti Emergency, UMCOR Advance #418325. Include the Advance # and name on the memo line of your check.

THE HIGHLIGHT REEL:

Credo News

■ Our Clue Christmas Lock-In was so much fun. With over 50 youth in attendance, the church was full and alive all night! Our teams competed fiercely for the title, and Mr. Green's team pulled ahead at the end with the perfect guess at our mystery. Tim Bourne led an awesome midnight worship, followed by a car-full of pizza!

■ January 23 we went to the Nothing but Nets Shootout where the Methodists (OCU) battled the Baptists (OBU) and gave the proceeds to Malaria prevention in Africa. We were most excited about the halftime show with Bishop Hayes.

■ The 11th Annual Chili Cook-Off originally scheduled for Jan. 30, was postponed until Feb. 20 due to weather. We have been busy preparing the carnival games and some awesome prizes for our congregation's best chili!

■ The first weekend in February will be our 1st "annual" junior high retreat in Tulsa. We are attending the Messiah Tour hosted by Christ in Youth. Please pray for our Junior High that attend this event that they might grow in their faith and enjoy their special time together. We are excited that Kimberly "Macemon" Densmore and her husband Cameron are hosting us. It's great to reconnect with old members of Good Shepherd!

From the Pastor...

I posted a message on my Facebook page a few days ago. It was a question I really want answers to and I've gotten some interesting responses. I thought I would ask you the same question hoping you would also respond honestly and openly.

Here's the question: What would encourage you to give more to the ministries of Good Shepherd?

Now, why ask that question? Our congregation has grown the past three years in attendance. We also have just over 800 members, a number that also continues to grow. If you are a member of Good Shepherd, you are part of one of the best congregations of the Oklahoma United Methodist Church. While the UMC, nation wide, declines, we are a growing congregation, one of the brightest spots of our denomination.

As a growing congregation we have growing needs for members to do ministry and give financial support. We are adding ministries, but the budget seems to get tighter each year, so I ask the question, "What would encourage you to give more to the ministries of Good Shepherd?"

I really want your answer. This is not a rhetorical question, or just a question to think on, as we ask sometimes. This is a question on an issue that your answers can help resolve. As I said, I have gotten some good answers on Facebook, but I am looking for many more suggestions to bring to those in charge of our finances.

If you will help by answering this question for me, you can respond in any way that is most convenient for you. Please send your answers to me by your choice of the following methods:

- Text me at 405-234-6648
- Email me at pastorjeff.cgs@sbcglobal.net
- The mailing address is 10928 S.W. 15th Street, Yukon, OK 73099
- Call me at 405-376-1900 (when the voice starts, punch 12)
- Write me a note and hand it to me or Evelyn on any Sunday morning at church.

Thank you for your help as we move forward in ministry together.

Pastor Jeff

New Sunday School studies begin

24 Hours that Changed the World

No single event in human history has received more attention than the suffering and crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth. In this DVD and book study title "24 Hours that Changed the World," Rev. Adam Hamilton guides us through the last twenty-four hours of Jesus' life. The class begins Feb. 14 and will meet in room C7 (or possibly the theater room, depending on the class size). It will run for the seven weeks of Lent, with a bonus class the week after Easter.

Whether you are a long-time Christian or simply curious about the story of Christ's crucifixion, you are invited to join us retracing the last 24 hours of Jesus' life. Cost is $8 if you'd like a devotional guide, but it's not required to take the class. ■

Evangelism without Additives

We will start a new 13-week book study in the CIA room (CLC) during the Sunday school hour Feb 21. The title of the book is "Evangelism without Additives" by Jim Henderson. This book comes highly recommended from Pastor Karen. We will have a few copies to share or we can order books for those who want their own copy. The cost is about $12.

One review stated: "I'll admit I'm at a loss sometimes when it comes to sharing my faith. With this book evangelism becomes just as simple as talking to a friend." If you have questions contact Glenda Bitner at 354-2127. ■

Reflections news

On January 18, Reflections Circle met in the parlor where Joyce Martin presented our program, a brief synopsis of the book "A Perfect Love." The first part, by John Wesley, was entitled "A Plain Account of Christian Perfection", giving advice to ministers. Marjorie Hewitt wrote an addition to this, including a description of her ecumenical background before becoming a Methodist and an explanation of Wesley's book.

Our next meeting will be on February 22 at 7 p.m. in the parlor. We will hear about two books, "The Greatest Gift" and "Caring for Mother." The March meeting will also be on the 22nd at 7 p.m., where we will be discussing "Road of Lost Innocence."

We would love for anyone to join us on the fourth Monday of each month when we are introduced to books from the UMW reading list. ■

Sojourner news

On March 18, Sojourner Circle met in the church parlor. Christine opened our meeting with a devotional based on Matthew 5:13-14. Each night as he went to bed, the author would ask himself, "Is the world a better place because I lived today?"

Our circle is continuing to collect donations of "winter gear" for NSO and we would welcome any contributions. We discussed and agreed to individual monetary donations to Haiti through UMCOR, and our circle will continue to support the recovery efforts in Haiti in future months. Julie distributed our 2010 pledge cards. Then each of us dropped in our change for World Thank Offering; we collected $25 at this meeting, and $72 for the year 2009.

Deaconess Grief Support

Grief is the normal and natural response to a loss. It will continue to affect our lives and the lives of those around us adversely if we accept the many myths about grief, such as "it just takes time," "you just need to stay busy," "you need to be strong for others," and "you can place the loss."

This program will provide a step-by-step approach for those who wish to resolve their loss issues and soften the pain. Meeting once a week for six weeks, these groups will be led by Bob Willis, Certified Grief Recovery Specialist and Nationally Certified Bereavement Facilitator.

Topics to be covered

- Normal responses to grief and loss
- Honoring the life that was lived
- Dealing with unfinished business
- Embracing your memories
- How to soften the pain of loss
- How to value all relationships

Dates: Tuesdays, Feb. 2 thru March 9

Time: 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Where: Deaconess Medical Offices North
5701 N. Portland

Call: 405-604-6190

This program is free and confidential.

Prayer: anxiety cure

"Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God, and the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, shall guard your hearts and mind in Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:6-7

It is a comfort to know that we can take everything to God in prayer. It is also a comfort to know that others in your church family would pray confidentially for your concerns and needs as well.

Good Shepherd has a prayer chain and we are currently revising our list of those who wish to be a part of this ministry. If you are interested, let us know and we will add you as a vital link in this prayer ministry. Questions? Please contact Karen Frazier at 209-0997. ■

Thank you

Thank you for all the kind words, thoughts, prayers, cards and meals that we received during Alan's mother's illness and recent passing. We are truly blessed to have such a wonderful Church family.

*Alan, Misha, Caitlin
& Allyson Yancey*

Dear Church Family,

Our entire family would like to express our deepest gratitude. Thank you all for your generous and effective prayer support with wonderfully kind wishes for good health, hope, happiness and peace for my father, John Weber, as well as my mother, Ruth. This was extremely touching for all of us. We celebrated Dad's presence at Christmas. The family hopes to enjoy Dad's 90th birthday celebration on February 11.

You are appreciated beyond words. Your continued prayers are always welcome. Please realize that prayer DOES work!

Living B.I.G. in February

Our B.I.G. Idea for February

We believe that because God loves and cares about us, we can show love and care to others.

Our Bible verse for January

"God is love," (1 John 4:16)

Christian love is more than just an emotion - love involves choices and actions and attitudes. This month, encourage your family to be intentional in showing love and care to each other. For example:

Prepare a special meal for a family member as a surprise. Fix that person's favorite foods.

Help each other pick up around the house or complete other chores. Make working together a game, not a burden. Leave "I Love You" notes around the house.

Exchange promises with other family members. ("I promise to go for a walk with you this week." "I promise to read you an extra bedtime story.") Keep your promises.

As a family, find ways to extend love and care to others: Make a pot of chicken soup for someone with a bad cold; Cheer someone up with a phone call or an e-card; Donate clothes you can no longer wear to a local clothing closet.

As your family works together to care for others, talk about God's love. Thank God for Jesus, who shows us what genuine love is like. Celebrate God's great big love for us!

Pastor Karen's PERSPECTIVE

Signs of Lent. No. Not under the bed, or falling from the dryer! The Lent I mean is serious stuff.

Lent is the forty-day liturgical season of fasting and prayer before Easter. The forty days represent the time Jesus spent in the desert, where, according to the Bible, he endured temptation by Satan. Distinctive churches calculate the forty days differently. In our church, Lent lasts from Ash Wednesday, February 17th, until Holy Saturday, April 3rd.

The purpose of Lent is the preparation of the believer. Through prayer, repentance of ill behaviors, giving of extra money to ministry, and self-denial, we commemorate the death and resurrection of Jesus. We celebrate Holy Week, which begins with Palm Sunday, and recalls the events linked to the passion of the Christ, then end with the celebration of the resurrection on Easter Sunday. The six Sundays in Lent are not counted among the forty days because each Sunday represents a "mini-Easter," a celebration of Jesus' victory over sin and death.

One of the most common practices of Lent is the giving up of something that might be a problem for you. But, there's more to that. When you give up those things like TV, smoking, gambling, drinking, chocolate, or some ill-behavior you want to get rid of, make sure you add the time you would have spent doing them, to spend with God. Maybe take some quiet moments for sitting still and listening for God's guidance. Add some extra time to serve at the church. Give the money you would have spent on those other things to the church. It's about sacrifice, but it also about giving back to the ministry of God.

I hope you'll join us Ash Wednesday, February 17 at 6 p.m. for our Services of Ashes. There will be a simple explanation, the Imposition of Ashes on your foreheads, and some suggestions how to help your Lenten Seasons be more meaningful. Take some time, this year, to truly contemplate all that Jesus has created in your life, won't you? And, while you're at it, it wouldn't hurt to clean out from under the bed, too!

Pastor Karen

Serve Jesus in the homebound

Karen Frazier
Caring Ministries Coordinator

What an outpouring of love and fellowship was experienced by all who came to make crafts and baked goodies for our homebound and hospitalized during the Christmas season. Thank you to all who participated.

In this same spirit of love, Caring Ministries will continue to minister to our homebound members and others. Because our efforts were so well received by those who enjoyed these "goodies" and the fun time we had creating these, we are having a Valentine Cookie Bake and Card Making day. We will be making decorated cookies and putting our creative talents toward decorated cards with various scriptures of love.

Please sign up to participate and bring your cookie sprinkles, heart doilies and stickers. We will gather in the Christian Life Center kitchen on Feb. 5 (Friday) at 10:00 a.m. This is the same day that we "Cook up Casseroles." A soup and salad luncheon will be provided for all who sign up. ■

Sojourner circle

Julie also presented our program on "Human Trafficking Awareness." UMW is taking a stand against sexual exploitation, encouraging women to send "Dear John" letters and support HR 7311. This problem is not just in other countries, but is also in the United States, even locally. We ended our meeting with yummy snacks.

Please join us for our next meeting at 2 p.m. on February 15 at Gloria Fisher's home. ■

February Scripture Overview

February 7-Communion

Isaiah 6:1-8

The prophet Isaiah's experience in the temple reminds us that God's holiness is found not simply in the extraordinary but in the ordinary. The transcendent awe of God comes to us not only with majestic sunsets and mountain peaks but also in moments of prayer and worship. In the temple, Isaiah sees and hears God and experiences the holy otherness of God's power and might. Isaiah opens himself and gives himself over to God, responding to God's call and promise, stepping forward to receive the news and to answer God's question: "Whom shall I send?" (Isaiah 6:8). It is a question that is still ours to answer.

February 14

Exodus 34:29-35

Moses, as the leader of Israel between Egypt and the Promised Land, at times received direction in the very presence of God. When Moses came back to the people from being in the presence of God, "the skin of his face was shining." The people were afraid, so Moses had to wear a veil in the presence of the people. Moses' whole countenance changed as a result of being in the presence of God. A question I ask myself is, "Can people tell when I've been in the presence of God?" How well do we reflect God's love and mercy?

February 21

Deuteronomy 26:1-11

The Israelites were instructed to bring the first fruits of their new land before the altar so those dedicated to full time service could join in the bounty of the land. This offering of 'first things' was to be a thank offering for their deliverance from the tyranny of the Egyptians and for the God-given victories over the enemies possessing their promised land. These Thank Offerings were to be accompanied with great celebrations.

February 28

Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18

Abram, who later is known as Abraham, the father of the people of Israel and the Arabs, is visited by God and promised his heirs will inherit the land. Abram questions God since he and Sarah were too old to have children. God responds by instructing Abram to sacrifice some animals. After Abram makes the sacrifices, God makes a covenant with him and his descendants to be honored forever.
